A Perillous Position.

During the progress of the fire at the American theatre in Philadelphia, on Sunday morning a week it was ascertained that Frederick Neuman, of the fire patrol, was in the ruins. Search was instituted, and he could plainly be seen, but it was impossible to reach him. He was held down, lying upon his back, by a girder which had caught him about the shoulder. On the top of this was an immense pile of debris. He was called to and answered. A number of men wanted to go into the building to rescue him, but the captain of the patrol held them back, fearing that more lives might be sacrified, the walls being momentarily expected to fall.

At one time the debris piled upon Neuman caught fire, and the flames were within a yard of him. A stream of water was put upon it, and he was saved from the horrible fate of being burned alive. About three hours afterward, he having been called to and answering cheerily to his comrades, he called out, "It's all up, boys; N. G .- no good !" Shortly after this, however, the fire was subdued, and several of the insurance patrol worked their way to where he was lying. It was impossible to extricate him, as it was feared that if even a single plank was reenoved the whole pile would fall and crush him to death. In the meantime the poor fellow showed immense fortitude. A drink of liquor was passed to him, but he refused it. Then some beef tea was passed to him, which he drank, and it was given him at intervals until between eight and nine o'clock in the morning, when he was libera-

About ten minutes before he was released he fainted, and when taken out he was unconscious. He was immediately taken to the Pennsylvania hospital, and at a late hour the next evening was doing remarkably well; the physicians, after a careful diagnosis, giving it as their opinion that he was suffering only from exhaustion.

Excitement in Nova Scotia.

HALIFAN, Feb. 28. - The question of precedence having arisen between certain Queen's counsel, an affidavit was read in the Supreme Court on Saturday setting forth that the seal attached to the commission of Queen's counsel appointed by the local Government, was not the great seal of the Province, but the old seal which was ordered to be returned by the Imperial Government in 1869. The Premier of the local Government admitted the Government had been using the old seal. The Court expressed astonishment at such contempt for Her Majesty's authorized and expressed opinion, and said that all acts requiring the great seal done since 1869 were totally void.

This state of affairs leaves Nova Scotia to-day without a Parliament and without a Government, with all grants of marriage licenses, consequently marriages, and all commissions since 1869 totally void. The greatest excitement prevails in consequence. The Chief Justice, after intimating that it would require imperial legislation to rectify the matter, adjourned the court for ten days for a full inquiry.

Two Men Killed and Four Injured.

Monday morning a scaffolding in the blast furnace of the Bethlehem Iron Company's works at Bethlehem, on which seven men were at work, gave way. Six of the men fell to the bottom, a distance of seventy feet, two of them, Charles Meyer, of Rittersville, Pa., and Henry Kichline, of Bethlehem, being instantly killed, and the other four seriously wounded. Two of them will probably die. The seventh man saved his life by jumping from the scaffolding on the top of the wall. He was also badly injured by the falling timbers. The following are the names of the injured men : Charles Durn, of Saucon, Pa.; George Nice, of Hellertown, Pa.; Jacob Fogel, of Salisbury, Pa., and Milton Kepler, of Bethlehem, Pa.

The ladies of New Castle have signed a pledge that they "will not court nor marry any young man who drinks any intoxicating liquors or uses tobacco;" and the young men say they "will neither court nor marry any young lady who laces, pads, wears a - big bustle, palpitator or other patent appliance as an improvement on nature;" and now the matrimonial business of that place is ended for the present.
